INGLEWOOD: A POPULAR DESTINATION

Inglewood is widely regarded as one of Calgary’s most dynamic and culturally rich communities. As the city’s oldest neighbourhood, it has evolved into a premier destination for shopping, dining, arts, music, and recreation, attracting both locals and visitors alike.

Perfectly positioned between the Bow and Elbow Rivers, Inglewood is surrounded by an exceptional network of parks, green spaces, and riverside pathways. The Bow River runs along the community’s north and east edges, while the Elbow River lies just to the west, creating a setting that is as scenic as it is walkable.

Key location attributes include:

- » Home to Inglewood’s Main Street (9 Avenue SE), featuring boutique retail, cafés, breweries, and live music venues
- » Immediate access to the Bow River pathway system, Pearce Estate Park, Inglewood Wildlands Park, and the Inglewood Bird Sanctuary

- » Walking distance to major attractions including the Calgary Zoo, St. Patrick's Island, and Fort Calgary Historic Park
- » Close proximity to the Bow Habitat Station and Sam Livingston Fish Hatchery, reinforcing the area's strong connection to nature
- » Direct access to Downtown Calgary, Deerfoot Trail, Blackfoot Trail, and Memorial Drive
- » Strong pedestrian and cycling scores, supported by established transit routes and future Green Line LRT plans
- » Surrounded by a dense inner-city population with strong household incomes and growing daytime employment
